

LETTER OF APPOINTMENT

Know all ye by these presents, that I have this day, August 9, 2014, appointed to the Office of Chief Justice of the Kingdom of Waa-Wurrung, Judge Silver Cloud Musafir a/k/a Navin-Chandra Naidu, who is also Chief Justice to several North American Indigenous Peoples Tribes, Nations, Bands and Clans under applicable federal American Indian law.

As Chief Justice, Judge Musafir will be engaged in adjudicating Australian Tribal affairs and matters relating to Original Peoples' rights to self-preservation, protection, safety and security not limited to real and personal property, land, soil, rights-of-way, easements, and rents due to Original People for use of their lands and waterways by civil governments, as usufructs, since the first penal colony was settled in their land without due consideration, permission and consent.

Chief Justice Musafir has been granted full authority and permission to convene tribal courts as His Honor sees fit throughout the land of the Original People on the continent of Australia.

Chief Justice Musafir shall also examine every court decision delivered thus far that has the authority to extirpate Original Peoples' rights; and create a corpus of Original Peoples' Law or Kingdom Law to set right the injustices wrought by the Australian government against the Original Peoples of Australia.

Original Peoples land titles shall be issued under the authority of the Kingdom's Judiciary based on the doctrine of usucapion. Every other title not affiliated, associated or connected to usucapion shall be declared fraudulent and null and void having no legal effect under private and public international law

Chief Justice Musafir will be aided in his judicial capacity with the selection of a suitable police force to enforce the Orders, Decisions and Judgments of the Kingdom of Waa-Wurrung.

An equitable compensation package shall be arranged for Chief Justice Musafir's functions, duties and obligations to the Kingdom as and when funds become available.

This Appointment shall remain in force until the Kingdom commands its rescission based on quamdiu se bene gesserint.

SO ORDERED.
